

That First Thanksgiving Day

How the Pilgrims invited their Indian friends to join them to observe the first Thanksgiving Day, following a season of successful crops and other bountiful blessings, will be retold this evening at 7:30 p.m. by the Torrance Recreation Dept. drama and craft classes at McMasters Park, 3624 W. Artesia Blvd. The children will present the skit as well as Thanksgiving songs. Pictured at left, in a spirit of friendliness, the Indians teach the Pilgrims how to shoot the turkey. Yukon school children, from left, are Debbie Warren 12, pilgrim, Russell Hoare 8, Indian, showing Bobby Mickamoni 9, Indian, how to use a bow and arrow while the turkey is spotted by Garla Jackson 8, and Patty Warren 6. In the picture at the right, the turkey dinner is served and the Pilgrims and Indians join in offering thanks. Parents and friends are invited to attend the program. (Press-Herald Photos)

COURTING LADY LUCK

Although these committee members for the St. Philomena Council's Winter Magic fashion show benefit were responsible for soliciting the fabulous array of door prizes to be awarded during the party on Dec. 7, they also hope that they too may share in the favors of Lady Luck. Sorting and choosing tickets for the prizes are from left, Mmes. Armando Silvas, Allan Molgaard and Armando Brunetti. The event will take place at the Retail Clerks Hall, 24959 Belleport, Harbor City. (Press-Herald Photo)

Fashion Benefit

In an appropriate "Winter Magic" setting at the Retail Clerks hall, 24959 Belleport Ave., Harbor City, Women's Council of St. Philomena's parish will present its annual fashion show on Tuesday evening, Dec. 7.

Mrs. Clifford Daniels is serving as general chairman of the event and is being assisted by Mrs. Samuel Consalvo, president of the Women's Council.

Other chairmen are Mmes. Marvin Gregory and Manuel Ceja, reservations; Armando Brunetti and Armando Silvas, prizes; George Elftman, hostesses; Al Weber, decorations; Robert Welter, posters; Allan Molgaard and Donald Cook, door prizes. Mmes. Dale Thompson and Edward Kohlmeier are handling the publicity.

Mrs. Michael Brunelli is serving as fashion coordinator. Modeling fashions from a dress shop in the Palos Verdes Peninsula Center will be Mmes. Gertrude Schwartz, Rene Shagois, Jose Alderete, Dale Thompson, A. G. Schneider, Richard Garcia, Donald Cook, Thomas Hanley, and Paul Baker.

Karen Ewals will model the new fashions for teenagers. Children's fashions, furnished by a Wilmington firm, will be displayed by Anthony Brunetti, Gregory Kuvakas, Michele Marincovich, Ruthmary Weber, Janet Hamrysak, Cathy Zalk, and Kari Jean DeAngelis. Mrs. Pat Peck will serve as narrator.

Models will wear fashionable new wigs from a Los Angeles firm and makeup will be provided by a Beverly Hills cosmetic salon.

A social hour will begin at 7 p.m. followed by the fashion parade at 8. More than 40 prizes will be awarded during the evening and the major prize is an all-expense two night and three days in Las Vegas at the Hacienda Hotel. To this major prize, the Council will donate $200 to add to the holiday trip.

THE GLOW OF CANDLELIGHT

The candles will glow for a worthy cause when the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary presents its annual Candlelight Ball at the Los Verdes Country Club next Saturday evening. Proceeds from the event will be used to buy cardiac monitoring equipment for the hospital. Lighting the candles in an ornate candelabra, in preparation for the event, are Mmes. Edward Balogh Jr., hostess chairman, Louis Musulim and John D. Fraser, reservations co-chairmen. (Press-Herald Photo)
